

British Values

29th June – 5th July

Democracy

There are lots of statues around the world. If we don't think a statue should be there, we can say how it makes us feel and make our voice heard.